Weinhold Legal appoints Jakub Nedoma as Associate Partner

Weinhold Legal has appointed Jakub Nedoma to the position of Associate Partner with effect from 1 October 2024.

"Jakub is an outstanding professional with extensive experience in a number of key areas of legal services that our firm focuses on, particularly in M&A and IT/IP law. We look forward to further developing a wide range of legal services in his new position that will benefit our existing and future clients," said Martin Lukáš, Partner at Weinhold Legal.

Jakub Nedoma is an associate at Weinhold Legal, where he has been working since 2012. From 2018 to 2020 he worked as an M&A and IT/IP expert for a multinational company operating in the CEE region. He is rated as a Rising Star (2023) for the Czech Republic in the IP STARS ranking.

Jakub Nedoma specializes primarily in M&A and IT/IP law, where he has experience in negotiating, preparing and executing both international complex transactions and local deals with an emphasis on the practical side of the transaction and smooth implementation. He has gained extensive experience in, among others, legal advice in corporate governance & compliance, contractual agenda and negotiation, venture capital, fintech and other modern technologies. He also focuses on corporate law, general commercial law practice, private asset management and dispute resolution.

He has worked on a number of projects for major Czech and international companies such as Komerční banka (Société General), Metrostav, Subterra, Eurovia (Vinci Construction), eureKING, Eurowag, Fortuna Entertainment Group, ČSOB (KBC), Otto Bock, Libristo Media, Sodexo (Pluxee), Rossum, GZ Media, Y Soft, Omega Pharma, Renomia, LAMA ENERGY GROUP, Unicredit Bank, Mafra, Banca popolare dell'Emilia Romagna, ThreatMark, P3 Logistic Parks, Siemens, CBRE, PKN Orlen, DiBO East, International Paper, Mach Drůbež, Wienerberger and others.
